

COUNTY TO GET FEDERAL HELP ON CARING FOR AGED IN 1962

Adams County and the Warner Hospital will receive federal funds in 1962 under the Medical Assistance to the Aged program scheduled to go into effect the beginning of the year.

County Home Superintendent W. E. Jordan said today: "We can't tell yet just how much the county will receive but we do know that some funds will come to the county under the new federal assistance program and under some other new state programs." Jordan said a "multitude of forms" have been filled out, medical examinations are being given and other procedures being cleared to permit the county to qualify under the programs. He anticipates that the preliminary work will be completed by Monday and said he had been told by state officials that the reimbursement will follow about two months after each monthly report. The new program he said "will cause a lot of additional paperwork but we believe it will be worth it."

HOSPITAL TO BENEFIT

The Warner Hospital is also making application under a program which will permit payment of up to $25 per day for a maximum of 60 days directly to the hospital on a "purchase of care" basis for persons 65 and over. Many of the persons who could qualify under that program are being treated now by the hospital under a state program which provides a $10 a day subsidy to the hospital for some of the patients to which it gives free care.

The new programs of care for the aged will "make more work for the Department of Public Assistance," Jordan said, noting that the department will have the job of investigating background in the cases covered by the new law. Those eligible under one phase of the program are persons over 65 who are residents of Pennsylvania and whose annual income does not exceed $1,500 and whose liquid assets are not over $1,500 for an individual or $2,400 for a couple.

The new program marks the first time that the state or federal government have provided any financial help for persons in the county home. Previously when a person entered a county home, any welfare assistance he may have been receiving was cut off.

COSTS LOWER HERE

Under the forthcoming plan, the amount of aid to be received by the county for guests in the home will be based originally on a reimbursement of one-half the cost, minus administrative expenses, based on $3.40 per day. That amount was the cost of keeping a guest at the county home per day during 1960. It included food, clothing, shelter and salaries but did not include and repairs, maintenance.

NABBED WITH STOLEN AUTO

Louie Fred Spence, 39, a migrant worker from Lake Wales, Fla., is being held in the Franklin County Jail in default of $1,000 bond on a charge of drunken driving filed by borough police. In addition to that charge, Spence was sentenced to five days on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license.

He was committed Thursday evening on the charge of operating without a license in default of $15 fine and costs set upon arraignment before Justice of the Peace John S. Gillan. Squire Gillan also set bond in the tipsy driving charge.

Gettysburg state police were expected to file a detainer for Spence on a charge of auto theft, Chambersburg police said. State police of the Gettysburg substation asked to be notified before Spence was released here. When apprehended by Chambersburg police, Spence was operating a vehicle reported stolen earlier in the day from John J. Deardorff, Biglerville R. 2.

Under questioning, police said, Spence admitted that he had no operator's license and that the car, a 1948 model Chevrolet coupe, did not belong to him.

The auto was reported stolen from a gasoline station along Rt. 30, six miles west of Gettysburg, earlier in the day.

Fall Weather Is Growing Chillier

With winter not scheduled to begin until next Thursday, the Weather Man was coming up with some chilly temperatures for the fall season.

This morning saw another low record for the season set here at 12 above zero. The previous low was 17 on Thursday.

On the same date last year, the low here was 11 degrees and the record low for the date is three below zero, a mark that has stood since 1914.

Contributing to last year's low reading on this date were the nine inches of snow that covered the county.

300 TO SING CAROLS HERE MONDAY AT 7

Three hundred Gettysburg Girl Scouts are expected to take part Monday evening in the annual "Carol Sing" to be held by the Scouts.

The singers will be members of 18 Brownie, Intermediate and Senior Girl Scout units in the borough, with the program of well-known carols to be led by Mrs. Robert H. Deardorff.

The program calls for the Brownies to sing a number of selections separately. The Intermediates and Seniors will also sing carols and the entire group will join together for some of the numbers.

ON CHURCH STEPS

This year's carol sing will be held on the steps of Christ Lutheran Church on Chambersburg St. The Scout leaders decided to change the location from Lincoln Square to Chambersburg St. because the noise of traffic at the square interfered with the music in other years. In addition, the steps at the Christ Lutheran Church will provide a natural "stage" for the singing.

The members of the Brownie, Intermediate and Senior troops are asked to be at Christ Lutheran Church at 6:45 o'clock for the sing which begins at 7. A half-hour program has been prepared.

Mrs. Arthur Phil, chairman for the "sing," said that following the caroling the Scouts will go to St. James Lutheran Church for refreshments. The borough police will provide the group with an escort across the streets enroute.

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—Heavy fighting raged in the streets of Elisabethville today and outnumbered Katanga troops fell back slowly before sustained attacks by U.N. troops.

The government of this secessionist province was said to have retreated to Kipushi, 30 miles to the south, or to Kolwezi, 150 miles to the northwest. Telephones were not answered at President Moise Tshombe's residence.

Brussels Radio said Tshombe was heading for Kipushi.

There were reports that the big Lido Hotel, only 300 yards from Katanga President Moise Tshombe's residence, had fallen to advancing U.N. forces.

Both sides kept up a booming mortar barrage throughout the night and the Queen Elisabeth Hospital—close to the loosely drawn front line—was reported damaged.

KATANGA UNITS SPLIT

Many Katanga units appeared to have split up. Some were roaming around without officers and seemed undecided whether to take up new positions or flee the town.

One Belgian volunteer drove around the city in a jeep equipped with a heavy machinegun trying to whip up the Katangans and get them back to the front.

Some of the Katangans seemed completely demoralized and were firing their rifles into the air aimlessly.

CUT MAIN ROAD

The situation at 9 a.m. was that U.N. forces controlled about half the town and had advanced to positions on the eastern and western flanks that gave them dominance over the main approaches from these directions. One of the main roads to Rhodesia out of town was cut or controlled by the U.N. troops at the Lido Hotel.

Heavy mortar duels went on all night in torrential rain that was still falling today. Katanga mortar crews and riflemen were soaked as they took cover in buildings near the tunnel.

Near the Lido they were fighting just in front of Tshombe's residence and the British and U.S. consulates.

She was born in Hedgeville, W. Va., the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards and was a member of the United Brethren Church, Cumberland, Md.

Surviving in addition to her daughter are two sons, Paul S. Price, Pittsburgh; Melvin Price, Camp Bell, Calif.; two other daughters, Miss Lillian Price, Rochester, N. Y., and Mrs. Frank Ryan, Cumberland, Md.; five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Cumberland, Md. Local arrangements are in charge of the Pittenburgh Home, York Springs.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. prestige in the United Nations soared today with the stunning defeat of a Soviet-led attempt to seat Communist China in place of Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese Nationalists.

The General Assembly's 48-30 rebuff of Peiping's bid was hailed as a victory for the United States which finally met the 10-year-old China issue head-on in a test of strength with the Soviet Union.

The fact that only 36 nations voted for Red China surprised many delegates. It was obviously less than anticipated by the United States, which had sought to block the Communists with its proposal making China seating "an important question" requiring a two-thirds vote for adoption.

REDS FALL SHORT

The Reds actually fell more than a dozen votes short of even a simple majority. Twenty countries abstained from voting.

College Trustees Name Four Buildings After 3 Doctors, General Paul

Three buildings at Gettysburg College were named in honor of a former president of the college and three alumni of the medical profession at a meeting of the board of trustees this week.

A dormitory for men was named the Willard Stewart Paul Hall.

The infirmary completed in 1960 will be known as the Paul Sieber-Nelson Fisher Infirmary and the former Phi Kappa Psi fraternity house in the center of the campus which was remodeled this year into a classroom-office building for the mathematics and education departments was named Stahley Hall.

Willard Stewart Paul (Lt. Gen. U.S.A., ret.), served as president of Gettysburg College from 1956 until September 1 this year when he retired. During his tenure enrollment and staff rose to an all-time high and the college initiated and carried out the most extensive building program in its history; accomplished the greatest advance in faculty salaries and benefits for any comparable period; brought faculty morale and administrative efficiency to a new peak and encouraged the broadest development of student government.

Dr. Paul R. Sieber, chief surgeon at Mercy Hospital, Pittsburgh, was graduated from Gettysburg College in 1907, received his M.D. degree from Johns Hopkins in 1911, and then entered general surgery practice. Following service as a chief surgeon with a base hospital in France in World War I, Dr. Sieber rejoined the staff at University of Pittsburgh Medical School and the Mercy Hospital surgical staff.

Dr. Sieber is a Phi Beta Kappa and holds membership in a number of professional and national medical and surgical associations.

NEED TWO OFFICERS

Discussion centered on the appointment of a secretary and treasurer for the borough, both of whom must be noncouncilmen. Mayor Clabaugh asked that anyone interested in the positions should contact a member of council. Several persons were mentioned but council said it would have to contact these persons to find out whether they would accept such a position.

Clabaugh read a letter from the Department of Internal Affairs stating that no state aid can be given to a borough for setting up boundaries or any original costs of the borough. The mayor said they are still short about $209 toward paying the incorporation fees, including the solicitor, surveyor and clerk of the courts. Voluntary subscriptions were received but fell short of the intended goal. Clabaugh requested all councilmen to make final contacts for donations toward the paying of the debt before the borough is incorporated.

It was announced that the Catholic War Veterans had donated $25 toward the cause at a meeting earlier in the week.

Hartman emphasized that one of

"We are convinced," Zori said, "that many who were compelled to vote against or abstain on this (Soviet) resolution will vote in favor at the next session."

Delegates predicted, however, that the Communists would have to wait a long time to see Peiping get the China seat. They pointed out that the thumping 61-34 vote for the decision requiring two-thirds approval of any change in

LONE GUNMAN GETS $1,500 IN YORK HOLD-UP

YORK, Pa. (AP)—State and local police are looking for a lone gunman who fled with $1,500 after a hold-up of the North York branch of the National Bank and Trust Co. of Central Pennsylvania Friday night.

State police reported the man entered the branch shortly before 8 p.m. and handed a manila envelope and a lengthy note of instructions to teller Marilyn G. Stover, 18.

TALL, THIN MAN

The note, which was left behind, said in part:

"Do not be alarmed. I have a gun and will use it if necessary. Don't try to alarm anyone else."

The man did not actually display a gun, but held his hand in his pocket as if carrying a weapon.

Enos C. Eberly Jr., Dallastown, manager of the branch, also approached the teller and was shown the note. He put the money in $10 and $20 bills into the envelope and handed it back to the robber. The robber walked out.

Police described him as a tall, thin man.

Loots Country Of $30 Million

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—Rafael L. Trujillo Jr. skipped the country with $30 million, the government says.

Checks and certificates drawn against Canadian banks made out to and endorsed by the son of the slain dictator were found on a yacht he used to sail into exile.

The documents reportedly were issued by several private enterprises, among them the reserve bank. The Dominican government has started action to freeze the funds and try to recover the money.

Young Trujillo, who headed the armed forces for a time after his father was assassinated May 30, is now in Paris. He traveled aboard the yacht Angelita only as far as the French island of Guadeloupe. The vessel returned here and was confiscated.

IS NAMED TO TOWN COUNCIL

The Biglerville Borough Council held its December meeting Tuesday evening in the council rooms of the fire hall. Present were: Ralph G. Taylor, president; Daniel P. Dentler, Melvin L. Ditzler, William F. Lerew, Eugene W. Rouzer, John E. Thomas, mayor, and Earl E. Ecker, secretary.

William F. Lerew, whose term expired this month, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Nelson E. Weber who moved from the borough. The property committee reported that the Metropolitan Edison Company will give its recommendation for the placing of additional street lights within the borough and the moving of several lights. The highway committee reported that the drainage project on Penn Street will be completed in the near future. A letter was received from the Department of Highway approving the center traffic light installation in the square.

Receipts for the month totaled $264.06 for the general fund, and $6,538.43 for the sewer revenue fund. Expenses were $1,358.90 from the general fund, $174.70 from the special highway fund, and $645.61 from the sewer revenue fund.

Car Is Wrecked; Driver Is Unhurt

Roy J. Wolf, 35, of Breckenridge St. and York, escaped without a scratch at 2:30 this morning when his car was demolished in an accident near the airport at Thomastown, but suffered a hand injury following the crash.

Wolf was driving west on the Lincoln Highway when he came upon two slowly moving cars. When he sought to brake he found the vehicle's brakes were failing and swung his car into the east-bound lanes to avoid hitting the cars ahead. Finding autos headed east he continued across the east-bound lanes onto the berm. His brakeless car broke off a telephone pole, then sideswiped a tree and rolled over several times.

The vehicle was demolished with damage estimated at $600 at the Glenn L. Bream Garage to which it was towed. Wolf crawled out of the car unscratched. He reached into the vehicle to remove some toys he was bringing home to his children and scratched his right hand in the wreckage.

tenance or depreciation of buildings.

The Adams County amount compares to a cost of $4.78 per day listed for York County. Adams County's costs per day in 1960 were among the lowest for the 51 counties which operate county homes.

The full reimbursement of one-half the cost is based on guests over 65 who have no income. It is believed that the federal fund will pay a proportionate share of those who pay a part of their costs. At present about half the guests pay something toward their keep.

FOSTER HOME CARE

About nine of the guests are expected to qualify for a state program of paying a part of the cost of keeping in the county home persons who are under 65 and who are disabled. Medical examinations are being made of those guests under 65 who may qualify for state aid. The final decision on whether they qualify is up to the state Department of Public Assistance physicians and investigators who study the applications.

Also scheduled to begin in 1962 is a program of foster home care for aged persons who are able to be about and only need minimal care. Jordan, who has been assigned by the commissioners the job of investigating the proposed foster homes and those who may be admitted to them, said about a half dozen homes have been offered "but we can't tell what we have until contracts are signed and none of them has been signed yet." When the program begins, the state will provide some funds toward such care under a new program started by the Department of Welfare. At present there are several applications for county home care by person who "probably could be handled under a foster home program."

The foster home program is one of a number which the state is seeking to promote by providing matching funds. However the matching funds are scheduled to expire in three years. Among the programs are day care and activities, homemaking and housekeeping, counseling and referral and hiring of an adult welfare director.

MUNICIPAL INCOME WAS UP FOR 1960

Adams County boroughs and townships reported greater revenues in 1960 than in 1959. Borough revenues increased $153,320 or 33.1 per cent to a total of $637,308, and township revenues increased $8,873 or 2 per cent to a total of $460,747.

These statistics were announced today by Genevieve Blatt, secretary of Internal Affairs, in a publication titled "Adams County Local Government Financial Statistics—1960." This is the fourth 1960 publication in a continuing series designed to present information concerning the finances of all municipalities of the Commonwealth. A separate publication is being issued for each county. There will appear in alphabetical order by name of county.

Boroughs received one-third of their revenues from real estate and occupations taxes and one-fourth from sanitary sewer service charges. State highway aid contributed about one-half of township revenues.

Total borough expenditures were $558,396, an increase of 34.2 per cent over 1959, and township expenditures amounted to $474,926, an increase of 3.9 per cent. Revenues exceeded expenditures in boroughs, but township expenditures were greater than revenues.

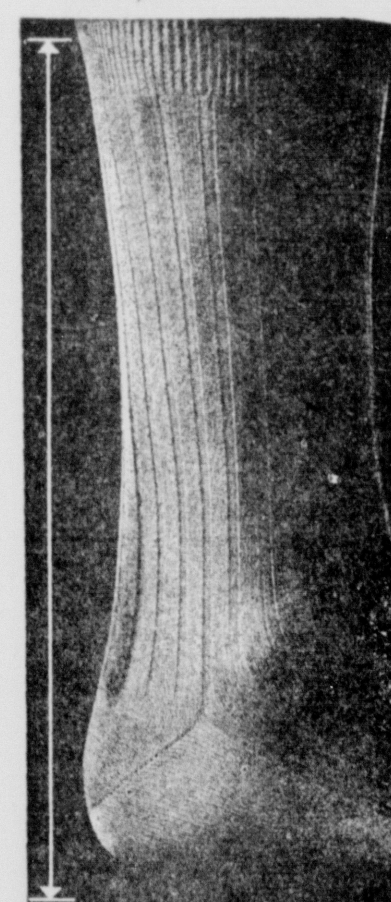

Municipal bonded debt in the county decreased during 1960. Borough bonded debt was $21,000 at the close of 1960, and townships were free of bonded indebtedness throughout the year. Total assessed valuations increased during 1960, and as a result of the increased valuations and decreased debt the remaining borrowing capacity of the county's municipalities increased more than $50,000 to a total of $2,152,397.

REDS ADEPT AT EVADING LAWS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Laws restricting Communists are no guarantee of security, says Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, because "communists are adept at evading laws." Wells, president and co-founder of Freedoms Foundation, Valley Forge, Pa., addressed a banquet closing the five-day Project Alert anti-Communist school Friday night.

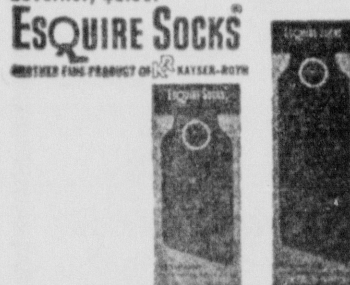

"The Communist party is not outlawed," he said. "It is only required to register. Be sure we realize that the Communists are adept at evading laws which limit their activity. The Communists are planners—they are long-range conspirators—and for this reason laws in themselves have not and do not now guarantee the safety of our republic against sneak thieves."

He was Gettysburg's first and only All-American mention and was among 61 former football stars to be nominated for the 1960 National Football Hall of Fame.

A native of Selinsgrove, he served in World War I and later earned a Ph.D. degree in physiology from the University of Chicago in 1923 and a M.D. degree from Rush Medical College in 1927. He was the author of numerous medical papers dealing with glands and internal secretions.

Dr. Fisher was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Phi Chi Medical and Sigma Xi. He received the Gettysburg College Alumni Meritorious Service Award in 1954, the year he became a member of the college board of trustees.

Dr. George D. Stahley, who died in 1939 at the age of 89, was graduated from Gettysburg College in 1871 and earned his M.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania in 1875. 11 YOUNG MEN ACQUIRE PART OF WHITE SOX

CHICAGO (AP) — Eleven successful young men, all wanting to own part of a baseball team, purchased 46 per cent of Chicago White Sox stock from Charles Comiskey Friday.

The sale at an estimated $3.5 million brought to an end the association of the Comiskey name with the White Sox. The club was founded in 1900 by Comiskey's grandfather, Charles A. Comiskey.

The purchasing group, headed by Chicago attorney Thomas A. Reynolds Jr., 36, said it hoped to work in harmony with Arthur C. Allyn Jr., White Sox president who owns 54 per cent of the club. All are Chicagoans.

Allyn last June bought out his two majority controlling partners — Bill Veeck and Hank Greenberg — for an estimated $2.5 million.

TWO ON BOARD

No one in the group has had any previous connection with baseball except for William C. Bartholomay, a 33-year-old business executive who owns two shares of stock in the Chicago Cubs and five in the Baltimore Orioles.

Reynolds and Bartholomay are expected to get two seats on the club's five-man board of directors when it is reorganized Monday. Allyn controls the other three seats. The minority stockholders range in age from 33 to 41 years.

Comiskey, who has been affiliated with an oil investment company and a theatrical production in Chicago, said "I am out of baseball completely but if opportunity should offer a suitable big league job in the future, I would take it under consideration."

Blame Chimney In $3,000 Fire

This Morning: A defective chimney was blamed by firemen for a blaze which caused between $2,000 and $3,000 damage, they said, to the farm home of Camillo Kiessling, three miles southeast of Gettysburg and a quarter mile south of the Baltimore pike, this morning.

Gettysburg firemen received the call at 10:30 o'clock. When the trucks arrived smoke was pouring from the windows and under the eaves, and a call was radioed back to the engine house for additional men. A second and third alarm were sounded and the Alpha Fire company of Littlestown was called on for assistance and responded.

No Visitors On Battlefield Over Weekend: For the first time in many years, according to the National Park Office, there were no guided trips over the battlefield last weekend.

John W. C. Riddle, superintendent of the National cemetery, said a number of automobiles passed through the cemetery both on Saturday and Sunday but had no guides.

Dr. J. Walter Coleman, National Park superintendent, said this was not a record. There had been days in the past when weather prevented trips through the cemetery or over the battlefield, but this had not happened for a number of years.

Police, Highway Officials Ask Motorists To Stay Home; Many Schools Close At Noon: State Police and state highway department officials joined today in warning motorists to "stay home" as a new snowstorm struck, piling up more than seven inches of additional snow before noon. All the snow-removal equipment of the county highway garage, 19 snow-plows and three graders, was called back into service this morning, J. William Kendeheart, superintendent, said. All highways were still passable to automobiles and trucks equipped with chains, but driving conditions were difficult, visibility was poor and main highways, although kept plowed, were slippery and dangerous.

Mask, Wig Club Will Give Xmas Program Friday: The Mask and Wig club of Gettysburg high school will present a Christmas program in the school auditorium Friday for both the junior and senior high school students. Junior high students will view the program at 8:50 a.m. and the senior students at 1 p.m.

Recorded carols will open the program. While the records are playing the Gettysburg high school will present the following selections: "Rejoice Christmas" by Edmondson; "Carols of the Bells" by Leontovich; and "Gloria in Excelsis Deo" by Lupo.

Snow Falls From Roof; 3 Cars Damaged: Three cars were damaged this morning when snow fell from the roof of The Gettysburg Times garage onto the vehicles parked beside the structure. The snow came in the form of a sedan owned by Luther Paul Pottoroff, Hanover, a workman engaged in constructing the addition to the Times plant. The hood caved in about three inches. The same fall caused a deep bend in the roof of a convertible and a dent in another sedan parked along the garage wall.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department's final report of the year listed the following production totals for Pennsylvania: Corn grown for grain, 895,000 acres harvested, 67 bushels per acre yield, production 59,965,000; bushels tobacco, 31,000 acres harvested, 1,725 per pounds per acre and 53,475,000 pounds produced.

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Gov. Elbert N. Carvel has signed a bill raising from five to six cents the state tax on gasoline. The measure is expected to yield $1.8 million additional annual revenue.

Today's Talk

GET TO THE HEART OF LIFE

The largest life is that which lives in the center of things. You can't see much if you work on the edge of events.

There isn't a human being in this world but is capable of being double what he is, or who can't double his efficiency.

It seems very wonderful, to me, that we speak of our greatest affection as coming from the heart—the center of all activity and life. Every minute of the day and night our heart is measuring beats for somebody, for something far beyond our present plans or dreams.

I saw a friend whom I had not seen for years rather recently. But it was a deflating experience for she could talk of nothing but her troubles, her aches and pains, her dissatisfaction with nearly everything about her. I thought how wonderful it could be if this woman had only schooled herself to the enjoyment of many interests outside herself.

When you work and think in the very heart of life you have no time in which to think of your own petty troubles. Everything else seems so big and important and the time for achievement all too short.

There is always confusion on the edge of affairs—for it is there that the listless and the ambitious like to gather.

Work and many interests build, broaden and extend life for anyone.

The builder puts his whole heart into his task.

Keep overflowing. The little heart shows in the expression of the face. There is no sunshine there. But the man with a big heart, who works in the center of worthwhile deeds, fairly radiates the life he thinks and lives.

Get to the heart of life—where the choice gifts and rarities of experience only are found.

COINCIDENCE OR GOD

An hour for help she prayed upon the floor,

But no one answered; no one heard her call.

Neighbors she knew were hurrying by her door.

Intent upon their business, great or small.

"Dear God," she cried, "send someone in to me."

But in the dark, still library, all alone,

Helpless and faint, she voiced her piteous plea.

To all the earth her sufferings unknown,

"We've lost our way!" a motor driver said.

"Let's stop and ask the first we chance to meet."

"I think," his comrade answered, "just ahead."

A block or two we'll find the proper street."

And thus they wandered all the neighborhood o'er

Till one said: "Stop! We won't get home tonight."

I'll ask directions at this very door."

He rang the bell. No answer came. A thrill

Raced through his pulses standing there alone.

Half-frightened then he shouted: "Hey, there, Bill!"

I'll swear just now I heard a woman groan!"

"Well," homeward bound, said he: "It strikes me odd

We'd pick that woman's house to ask the way.

I wonder if it's possible that God Deliberately sent us there to-day?"

NORTHEAST IS STUNG BY ZERO TEMPERATURE

Sections of the Northeast today felt some of the sting of the zero cold that has chilled midwest areas for the last week.

Temperatures subsided across most of the Midwest but icy air sent temperatures tumbling below zero in upstate New York and parts of New England. In New York, Rome reported five below zero and it was zero in Massena and Watertown. In New England, the mercury dropped to -2 in Montpelier, Vt., -1 in Caribou, Maine, and zero in Lebanon, N.H. Most of the Midwest got a respite from the frigid air, but in Wisconsin, temperatures dropped slightly below zero in Madison and Green Bay.

STILL COLD

But it was still cold in most areas from the Northern Plains eastward through the Great Lakes region and into the northern Atlantic States. Temperatures were in the teens and lower in many sections, with some areas reporting readings in the 20s.

Higher marks, in the 40s and 50s, prevailed south of the cold belt and ranged p to the middle 70s in southern Florida. In the West, readings were in the 20s in the Rockies and on the West Coast they ranged from the 30s and 40s in the north to the middle 50s in the south.

BIG WET BELT

The biggest wet belt during the night was across the southern tier of states. Snow fell in the southern Rockies, with drizzle and rain in a broad area from Texas and eastern Oklahoma through most of the Gulf States. A narrow belt of rain also extended through the Appalachians as far north as southern West Virginia.

More rain fell in the Pacific Northwest, with light snow in eastern Washington and northern Idaho. Snow also fell in scattered sections of western Nevada, southern Idaho, upper Michigan and from International Falls, Minn., south-southwestward to Sioux City, Iowa.

Mercersburg Negro Hijacks Boat And Heads For Cuba To Kill Castro; Shot In Chest

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—"If we run out of gas, you run out of life." That's what sport fishing skipper Richard Gledhill said he was told by a Negro hijacker, who held command with a pistol as Coast Guard craft raced in pursuit.

The motorboat Sandona's hectic cruise ended off Cape Florida Light Friday when a police sharpshooter pin-wheelled William Stoner, the gunman, with a rifle shot at 35-yard range. Mate Jack Harrington, with Stoner's gun against his head, was unhurt.

Miami Beach policeman William Leary, crouched in the bow of a Coast guard boat, was ordered to aim for the 19-year-old Mercersburg, Pa., Negro's right shoulder. The slug from his .30 caliber scope-equipped rifle struck Stoner in the chest, close to the shoulder and knocked him to the deck.

The first items will be to prepare a budget for 1962 and have it approved by council. Included in the budget must be millage or some type of taxes to be levied on the residents. In connection with the budget, it was asked whether a councilman would have to be paid. Hartman noted that the law says they may be paid a maximum but it says nothing about nonpayment.

Much of the discussion centered on the borough's responsibility for insurance, particularly during the first few days after incorporation and the two days at the beginning of the year. Hartman said that as long as the insurance policy now in effect remains in effect the borough will not have to worry. But if the insurance company should decide to cancel the contract, then the borough should obtain some sort of insurance immediately.

It was announced that a representative from the Metropolitan Edison Co. would be present at the January 2 meeting to present a contract for the street lighting system. Hartman noted that, for this reason, a secretary and treasurer should be appointed at the first session in order that they will be able to sign the contract. In connection with the street lighting, it was pointed out that seven residents presently have electricity with the REA, and the latter's rules permit no service into a borough.

Mayor Clabaugh read a letter from Adams County Civil Defense Director William Weaver requesting the mayor to appoint a person as the CD director for Bonneauville. The letter said the person's name would then have to be approved by Gov. Lawrence.

Those attending Friday's meeting were: Tax Collector Philip Little; Constable Bernard Lemon; Councilmen Richard Neiderer, Vincent Staub, Frank Clabaugh, Paul Walter, Bernard Walter, Jean Miller and James Orndorff; Atty. Hartman; Mayor Joseph Clabaugh; Assessor Riley Harbaugh, and Justice James Long.

Police on a pursuing boat shouted appeals for Stoner to drop his gun, promising he would not be hurt. He ignored them and finally Lt. N. G. Siegfried ordered Leary to shoot.

Stoner was hospitalized in serious condition.

world leaders to bring peace to the Congo.

In New York, U.N. Acting Secretary-General U Thant declared his determination to hold out against a cease-fire in Katanga until the United Nations has won all of its objectives in fighting there. His statement was in reply to cabled pleas for a cease-fire from President Abba Fulbert Youlou of the Congo-Brazzaville and President Philibert Tsiranana of the Malagasy Republic.

U.N. headquarters in Leopoldville said more than 6,000 troops of the international army were thrown into the first big U.N. drive in the 11 days of renewed warfare with Katanga troops.

HUNDREDS WOUNDED

A score of persons in Elisabethville were reported killed and hundreds wounded. First reports said most were civilians.

The United Nations headquarters said U.N., Swedish and Irish troops had launched a major attack against Camp Massart, the main Katangan military camp in the city, and were locked in "sharp engagement" with Tshombe troops there.

"This looks like the big U.N. push," said a Belgian resident. "The next few days will settle the fate of Katanga."

Armored cars and mortars duelled while rifle and machine-gun fire blazed through the streets. Witnesses said the Katangans—outnumbered 2 to 1—were putting up a stiff fight. Leap-frogging by squads, the reinforced U.N. troops drove south to the business district, quickly piling up spectacular gains. Katanga mortar teams boomed into action while African refugees fled from the battle areas.

AFL SEASON ENDS SUNDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The American Football League regular season comes to a close Sunday. And that will be all until the championship playoff game Dec. 24 unless Boston and Houston do the unexpected and throw the Eastern Division into a snarl.

Houston plays lowly Oakland can win the title outright by tying or winning the game. The Oilers also could win it by losing in the event Boston, the runner-up team, loses to San Diego.

Boston, a game behind Houston, closes out at San Diego, which has a 12-1 record for the season. The Chargers took care of Boston before, 38-27.

New York's Titans will be playing the Dallas Texans at Dallas in another closing game Sunday.

Denver and Buffalo, the other members of the league, wound up the season last Sunday.

Cites Benefits Of AE Plants At Pole

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. James E. Van Zandt, R-Pa., says U. S. taxpayers will profit by $60 to $80 million over a 15-year period of operation of atomic power plants at the South Pole.

Van Zandt, who recently visited the South Pole as a member of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee, said diesel fuel used in the Antarctic now costs the taxpayer $8 to $10 per gallon by the time it is flown there.

He said the cost of constructing four power plants on sites already selected will be offset within five years by the savings in transportation costs.

CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Giocchino Failla, 70, internationally known physicist, was killed Friday in a two-car accident on an icy road near Chicago. HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—William Mills Maltbie, 81, retired chief justice of the Connecticut State Supreme Court, died Friday. Maltbie, who served as chief justice of Connecticut for nearly 20 years, the longest term in the state's history, was born in Granby, Conn.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—A 21-year-old Clairton, Pa., soldier is the 25,000th man to be awarded a diploma from the Army Ordnance Guided Missile School here. Pfc. Robert Stokes received his diploma Friday.

Fred Pierce Corson, president of the World Methodist Council, says present U. S. policy is rapidly pushing this country into a state of open war on the Congo's Katanga province. Corson, in a telegram to President Kennedy Friday, said Katanga is the only Congo state where freedom of religion still exists. He urged the president to support a cease fire by United Nations troops.

S. VIET NAM, U.S. AGREE ON NEW POLICIES

By SPENCER DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and South Viet Nam agreed on a dozen new steps—including measures for social reform and more representative government—to make U.S. aid more effective in combating communism in the Southeast Asian republic.

Informed sources today reported details of the agreement between President Ngo Dinh Diem and U.S. Ambassador Frederick E. Nolting Jr., which cleared the way for the increase in U.S. assistance.

The increased support for South Viet Nam ordered Friday by President Kennedy indicates that firm agreement had been reached on a number of reform measures, informants said.

SHARE DECISIONS

Among them:

1. An agreement by Diem to share some of his decision-making responsibilities with the South Viet Nam National Council.

2. An agreement by the South Viet Nam military to share more responsibility in meeting the Communist thrust with the American command stationed in South Viet Nam.

3. Adoption by the South Viet Nam leadership of new ideas on the training and deployment of the Viet Nam armed forces.

4. Acceptance of joint U.S.-Viet Nam teams to report on social and economic conditions in the country.

JOINT INTELLIGENCE

5. Acceptance by South Viet Nam of joint intelligence operations with U.S. military personnel in the campaign against the Communist Viet Cong infiltrators.

6. A decision to increase pay of militia forces and some civil servants to improve morale.

7. A crackdown on neotism and corruption in the administration of certain districts.

8. Better utilization of Viet Nam's local currency and counter-market funds generated by the sale of U.S. aid commodities.

Nolting's conferences with Diem followed Gen. Maxwell Taylor's tour of South Viet Nam last October. Taylor, Kennedy's special military adviser, reportedly recommended to the President that before U.S. assistance was increased, Diem should be prevailed upon to make internal reforms.

Fire Prevention Is Worth More Than Acre Of Ashes, Says Adams County Agent

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Since 90 per cent of all farm fires result from carelessness of some kind, greater effort on the part of everyone is needed for effective fire prevention.

The fire that never starts is easiest to control. Fire prevention is worth more than an acre of ashes. One important way of cooperating with a fire prevention program is to learn how to eliminate fire hazards.

Many farms in Adams county are located several miles from fire fighting equipment, hence it is highly important to keep farm homes as safe from fires as possible.

The principal causes of farm fires are: matches and smoking, lightning, chimneys, flues, stacks, petroleum and its products, sparks on roof, stoves, furnaces, boilers, and their pipes, catching fire from other buildings, spontaneous ignition, misuse of electricity, hot ashes, open fires, and friction.

3-WAY PROTECTION

Here's a recipe for three-way protection: (1) Prevention: inspection and removal of hazards both inside and outside. (2) Home fire-fighting equipment: extinguishers, ladders, hose (with pressure water system), buckets, etc. (3) Organized farm fire protection: leadership, neighborhood volunteers, fire trucks, good roads, good tools, a telephone to give the alarm, and a water supply on the farm.

It's time to winterize your farm tractor, and other engines being retired for the winter. A little attention to the tractor now can insure the smooth operation next spring with out a major overhaul. The following directions are offered for putting the engines in safe winter hibernation:

1. Clean all dirt, grease and oil from the engine. Use a high pressure water hose or a steam cleaner if available. Paint the rusted parts after "wire-brushing."
2. Start up the tractor: when warm, drain the old oil from the crankcase and replace with new oil. It's important to remove the old oil because it is contaminated with acids, sludge, and water. The acids, especially, can be corrosive when the engine is idle for long periods.

HONOR ROLL AT FAIRFIELD H. S. IS ANNOUNCED

The honor roll for the second marking period at the Fairfield Joint High School was announced today as follows:

Grade 12
Mary Herring, Faye Melhorn, Patricia Myers, Carol Reindollar, Mary Jo Ross, Ann Sanders, Gary Sanders, Ronald Sanders, Donna Schultz, Betty Sterner, Ray Trembow, John Weikert, Judy Whited, and Terry Wills.

Grade 11
Calvin Bream, Genevieve Cool, Jane Deardorff, Ronald Hurley, Donna Kane, John Marshall, Michael McEldowney and Stuart Sites.

Grade 10
Margaret Deardorff, Donald Dick, Martin Hardman, Norman Helman, Sandra McClellan, William McClellan, Dorothy Mohler and Nancy Naugle.

Grade 9
Linda Buhrman, Kathryn Cullison, Nancy Gladhill, Frances Helman, Deborah Miller, Donna Mummert, Susan Polley, Elaine Reindollar, Michael Reindollar, Robert Sanders, Larry Schmidt, Linda Staley, Faye Strayer and Sheila Whited.

Grade 8
Rodger Benner, Thomas Bream, Patricia Deardorff, Shirley McClellan, Ronald Miller, Dorothy

3. Start the engine again and run it for a few minutes to coat the interior surfaces with clean oil.

4. Then stop the engine and remove the spark plugs. Pour about one table spoon of top motor lubricant oil in the spark plug hole.

5. Replace the spark plugs and turn engine over several times, but do not start it. This will distribute and coat the top of the cylinder and piston and valve stem with a film of oil and prevent rusting and corrosion.

6. Drain the gasoline from the fuel tank and carburetor. This will prevent the formation of gum due to slow evaporation of the fuel.

This protective treatment will bring the engines through winter storage in good shape, so in the spring they'll be ready to start work without a cough or sputter.

Let's Look At The Record

WANT A BUY U.N. BONDS?
Until Members Improve Payment Habits
Mother's Savings Should Go Elsewhere

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

THE UNITED NATIONS is in trouble; real trouble — financial trouble! Ack McCartney, the sage of the Edwards Plateau, used to insist no cash is the worst trouble there is.

But Ack was speaking for people, not governments. People can not print money that will get by for more than a few days. But governments have printing presses, the engravings, plates and special paper. Governments also have civil service artists who can design a new and official looking plate just in case someone steals an old one.

Moreover, the money a government prints is backed by the confidence, acceptance and wealth and well being of the millions of citizens who are the nation printing the money.

THIS LAST is exactly what the United Nations does not have. Hence Mr. U Thant and his secretariat, the salaries of all of whom are in danger, are thinking about doing what every government and corporation can do if the price of a high-grade, printing bill is in hand. They want to sell some bonds. The loan resulting from the bond issues will be two hundred million dollars.

If this loan goes through, it can be paid from only one possible source of revenue — the future assessments against member nations.

This would prompt any country banker to ask how good are the members of the lodge at paying their dues and assessments. This calls for a brief glance at the U.N. finances.

WHEN MONEY is involved, the U.N. appears to indulge in a certain amount of purposeful confusion.

For example, we are often told by U.N. officials that the U.N. costs only 40 or 50 million a year. They also say United States should pay the most. This is not because America gets the most benefit from its services but merely because all agree America already has the most.

Russia has been making terrific boasts about progress under communism, but at no time has suggested her share of U.N. costs could be revised upward. Nor has anyone been bold enough to suggest that, if Russia is to have six votes compared to one for all other nations, she should be willing at least to match what United States is paying.

Be that as it may, America's accepted share is 32½ per cent of the total. The USSR, including the Ukraine, are assessable up to 15½ per cent. Great Britain comes through with 7½ per cent. From there it graduates down to 0.04 per cent for small or undeveloped nations like Albania, Congo, Libya and Liberia.

Under these scales, for the 1960 U.N. budget of a little over 58 million, U. S. paid just short of 19 million; Russia, just short of eight million and poverty-stricken Albania and the other four one-hundredths of one per cent had to cough up no more than $23.320 each.

AMERICA'S assessment sounds cheap enough compared to our other expenses. But the above is not all. There was a special assessment for 20 million dollars to foot the bill for UNEF. That is where the purposeful alphabetical confusion begins.

UNEF stands for United Nations Emergency Force in the Middle East. America paid roughly six and a half million of this bill. Russia's share is two and three-quarters millions. On this Russia has balked, as have a number of others.

For last year's Congo force, cost assessments came to 48½ millions. America paid just short of 16 millions. Russia's share was a little over six and a half millions. She and her Red satellites have defaulted.

Now comes forth Mr. Adlai Stevenson's delegation to tell our Congress that the total cost of the U.N. Family, plus the forces in the Congo and Middle East, in 1960 was at least 344 millions.

The "family" which has to be financed by assessments are International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), the International Labor Organization (ILO), Food and Agriculture Organization

Sharrath, Linda Spence and Brenda Newman.

Grade 7
Deborah Bream, Dorothy Fair, Zea Golden, Lois Graff, Judy Harbaugh, Gary Hull, Jack Inskip, Michael Martin, Thomas McClellan, Denise Nagle, Eddie Nagle, Patricia Sanders, Priscilla Sanders, Annis Scott and Valerie Slusser.

To be on the honor roll a student must have a "B" average with no grades below a "C."

(FAO), United Nations Educational and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) and nine additional alphabetical agencies.

Russia and her Red bloc have refused to belong to more than about half the "family organizations," bowing out particularly on the expensive International Monetary Fund.

THE REDS are not the only members who pay as, if, and when they see fit. Smaller nations with tax and income problems have often defaulted for several years in succession.

France has recently announced she will pay nothing toward the Congo costs. De Gaulle is bowing out early. He knows it may take 100,000 soldiers several years to pacify and unify the Congo.

Some other people think likewise for that is why the U.N. wants to borrow 200 million dollars quickly. The idea is that when the bonds are due, all members will happily pay their share.

American experience with international, emergency financing since 1917 offers no such hope. U. S. will have to underwrite the whole issue or some bondholders are going to get gigged. It is no long-range investment for widows and orphans.

SCIENCE IN GETTYSBURG ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS

"Elementary science is not a watered-down junior high or high school program. It has unique objectives appropriate to the level of the children of the elementary school." This statement issued by the Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania forms the basis for science instruction in the Gettysburg Elementary Schools.

In "Teaching Trends," an educational pamphlet, Thomas Hungerford states: "A science program that helps children to grow in understanding of the natural world, to learn to organize their thinking and to develop a scientific attitude is their best preparation for the space age and whatever age follows."

In order to carry out these objectives, let us consider what the Gettysburg School System is doing along the lines of content, materials and procedures in its elementary science program.

NINE CONTENT AREAS

The larger areas of content would include (1) How We Can Take Care of Ourselves, (2) How We Can Take Care of and Control the Things Around Us, (3) How Plants and Animals Live, (4) How Plants and Animals Get Along Together, (5) What Some Common Forces Do, (6) Some Kinds of Energy, (7) What the Weather is Like, (8) What Happens to the Land Around Us, (9) What We Can See in the Sky and in the Ocean.

The teachers attempt to foster inquisitive minds and to develop the mental habit of questioning the what, why and how of things. Science is exploring.

lay the early foundations of science concepts by specimens, demonstrations and discussions. Beginning with the Second Grade through the Sixth, every child has a basic science book. The large areas of content are developed in every grade on the understanding level of the boys and girls. The supplementary material would include approximately 350 science books in a central science library. Each room has its own library with a sizable number of science reference books.

MANY VISUAL AIDS

Visual aids include classified film strips, projectors for slides and film strips, opaque projectors, moving picture projectors, records and record players, junior science kits, senior science kits, science table with equipment for performing experiments, science charts, microscopes, bioscopes and collections (rocks, fossils).

The models include the human torso, with removable parts; eye, ear and head with removable parts. Flower, leaf, stem and root tip models provide an understanding of plant life and structure. Model engines and geared wheels along with other machines illustrate principles of energy. Motorized satellite globe and models of sun, earth and moon promote an understanding of earth and outer space.

Many rooms maintain aquariums and terrariums and some care for small pets. There are things of science to be assembled. The portable science table contains equipment for exploring science concepts in any room.

WON RECENT PRAISE

The National Defense Education Act has given financial support to schools in order to strengthen the elementary science program. Many of the books and much of the equipment has been made possible because of this aid.

The Department of Public Instruction of Pennsylvania with the financial support of the NDEA produced 30 15-minute elementary science films especially for use on television during 1960-61. There were continued during 1961-62. These programs were for the Fifth and Sixth Grades. A new series was added for the 1961-62 for the Third and Fourth Grades.

This consists of 15 15-minute programs. These television programs have been available in the elementary school to the extent that television facilities are present.

The evaluation report of the visiting committee in the elementary schools May 4 and 5, 1961, stated: "We feel that the science program is meeting adequately the needs of the children." The committee further commended (1) the offerings of the science program, (2) the extensive use of visual aids and equipment, (3) the high degree of student participation in science activities, (4) the evidence of experimentation in the classroom and (5) the high degree of motivation of students by the teachers.

SANTA and the FLYING SHOE

by Lucrece Beale

SYNOPSIS: Santa and King Ferdinand of Polydora are puzzling over the mysterious of the monstrous Ipswitch and the haunted palace, when suddenly the lights go out and the King disappears!

CHAPTER TWELVE THE TRAP

Santa looked about in bewilderment. The King's room appeared perfectly normal but the King was missing. Standing there, Santa heard a strange rattling in the closet on the far side of the bed. He tiptoed to the closet and put his ear against the door. The rattling was subdued but violent as if a cook in a hurry was beating a dozen eggs into an omelet.

Santa took a deep breath and threw open the door. The King's clothes hamper was jumping up and down on the closet floor!

Reaching out gingerly, Santa opened the hamper and stepped quickly back. A pair of legs popped from the tangled clothes and waved frantically in the air.

"For goodness' sake!" exclaimed Santa. "It's the King!"

And so it was. Santa fished him, spattering and quivering, out of the clothes hamper and set him on his feet.

"What happened?"

The King unwound a purple stocking from his neck. "When the lights went out I felt myself fly through the air and I landed upside down in the dirty clothes. That's all I know."

"We must get to the bottom of this," said Santa suddenly very business like. "Since all of your troubles started with the first visit of the Ipswitch I suggest we find the Ipswitch."

"But—I can't get out of the palace!" protested the King. He told Santa how the people were very angry because he had not stopped the Ipswitch. "If they see me they will tear the crown from my head."

"Poot!" said Santa cheerfully. "We will wear disguises." He opened his bag and pulled out two woodchoppers' costumes. "This will suit me better than an old woman's dress anyway," he said, putting on his new disguise.

Delighted, the King drew on the tough leather pants and coarse coat and admired himself in the mirror.

"We'll stretch this rope across the plain," said Santa.

"We'll need rope," said Santa as he bustled around the room. "There's the fire rope," said the King. "It hangs out the window for escape in case of fire." He opened the window and pulled up the rope that dangled five stories down.

Santa wound the rope over his shoulder and the two woodchoppers stole out of the palace. Dawn was just breaking when they arrived at a narrow plain between two hills just beyond the town.

"Wherever the Ipswitch steps it will have to pass this way," reasoned Santa. "We'll stretch this rope across the plain and no matter how fast it goes or how big it is it is bound to trip over the rope."

They tied one end of the rope to the top of a sycamore and the other end to an oak on the opposite side of the plain. Then they hid themselves in some bushes and waited.

They waited all that day and all that night and by the next morning they were not only frozen they were starved. They were just going to get food when they heard a distant thud.

"It's coming!" cried the King. In a moment there was another thud, still far away but shaking the ground around them. Then another thud; this one so close it upheaved the bushes around the woodcutters and buried them in dirt and shrubbery.

The thuds receded and Santa and the King unbent themselves and rushed to the plain. There was the footprint of the Ipswitch and right in front of it stretched the rope just as they had left it.

The Ipswitch had never even touched it.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

MORE ABOUT THE YOUNG FAMILY

The chronicle of the Young family, of the Low Dutch Colony of the Conewago, is continued today with additional genealogical detail — an attempt to build a family tree from a few broken or fallen grave markers — held together by data from the files of the old "Adams Sentinel" later to be known as the "Star and Sentinel."

The Robert Young Jr., whose obituary was included in last week's column, is buried in the family plot in the "Lower" Dutch Reformed Churchyard. The marker originally placed at his grave is now badly broken and some of the pieces are missing but enough remains to give a partial inscription —

"In memory of Robert Young, Son of Robert and Mary Young, Died January 18, 1833, In the 18th year of his age."

10. Monday, March 24, 1834 — "Married, March 19, 1834, by the Rev. Frederick Ruthrauff, of this County, Mr. Daniel Gilbert to Miss Lydia Young — both of Mountjoy Township, this County."

Note: — The Lydia (Young) Gilbert mentioned above could be a daughter of Robert Young, of the Low Dutch Colony — at least she appears to have been a member of that family. The place of residence was the same — Mountjoy Township.

11. Monday, November 20, 1837 —

"Died, November 2, 1837, Mr. Andrew Young, an old soldier of the Revolution, of Abbotstown, this County, aged about 87 years."

EARLY PATRIOT

Note: — Nothing is known pertaining to this Revolutionary Patriot and it would be almost impossible to say just where he is buried — probably in either the Lutheran or Reformed church yards at Abbotstown — in an unmarked grave — or perhaps in the "Lower" Dutch Reformed graveyard.

12. Monday, March 5, 1838 — "Died, Wednesday evening, February 28, 1838, Mr. John Young, of Menallen Township, this County."

Note: Another unknown branch of the Young family tree but undoubtedly a member of the Low Dutch Settlement of the Conewago family — it will be remembered that Robert Young Sr. (died 1810) mentions a son John Young in his will. This may well be the same man.

In his will, which was written February 5, 1838, and entered to probate March 9, 1838, John Young mentions the following members of his family —

1. Wife, Jane Young — "my entire estate, both real and personal."

2. Brother-in-law — Andrew Polly.

Apparently this John Young left no children and it would seem that his own particular family line died with him.

DIED IN 1837

The old newspaper files shed some light on the widow of John Young and his brother-in-law, Andrew Polly.

13. Monday, January 9, 1837 — "Died, January 2, 1837, Mrs. Jane Polly, the wife of Mr. Andrew Polly, of this Borough, in the 44th year of her age."

14. Monday, March 25, 1839 — "Married, Thursday evening, March 21, 1839 by the Rev. James C. Watson, of this County, Mr. Andrew Polly, of this Borough, to Mrs. Jane Young, of the same place."

Note: — It would seem that some eleven months after the death of her husband, Jane, the widow of John Young, married her husband's brother-in-law — one Andrew Polly, Jane (Young) Polly is buried in the family plot of her second husband in the Evergreen Cemetery at Gettysburg.

14. Monday, August 26, 1836 — "Married, August 22, 1836, by the Rev. Charles Weyl, of this Borough, Mr. Henry Group, the son of Mr. George Group, to Miss Margaret Young, both of Menallen Township, this County."

Note: — Undoubtedly Margaret (Young) Group was related, to some degree or other, to John Young, of Menallen Township, who died in 1838. At this time, however, nothing further is known pertaining to her.

MARRIED IN 1841

15. Monday, April 5, 1841 — "Married, Thursday, April 1, 1841, by the Rev. James C. Watson, of this County, Mr. James S. Wilson, of Hamiltonban Township, this County, to Miss Susanna Young, daughter of Mr. Robert Young, of Mountjoy Township, this County."

Note: — Susanna (Young) Wilson was the daughter of Robert Young who is buried in the "Lower" Dutch Reformed Churchyard. Perhaps it was the descendants of this woman who for many years visited and cared for the Young family burial plot in this old desecrated burial ground.

16. Monday, June 4, 1842 — "Died, May 27, 1842, after a lingering illness, Miss Matilda Young, the daughter of Mr. Robert Young, of Mountjoy Township, this County, in the 35th year of her age."

Note: — The daughter of Robert and Mary Young is buried with other members of her family in the "Lower" Dutch Graveyard and her grave is marked and, what is more unusual for this plot, the stone is still in place.

"In memory of Matilda Young, Died May 27, 1842, Aged 35 years and 6 days."

This concludes, for the present at least, the genealogical notes on the Young family of the Low Dutch Settlement of the Conewago.

Additional data on the Durbarow family, who are buried in the upper (eastern end) of this old graveyard, will be included in this column next week.

Compromise On Berlin Is Indicated If Russia Makes Modification In Its Policy

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON
PARIS (AP)—The way lay open today for the United States to lead the West's quest for a Berlin bargain with the Soviet Union—but only on condition the Russians make major modifications in their policy.

A high U.S. source said the recent public statements of Soviet leaders do not lend an acceptable basis for negotiations.

President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan got the approval of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization for foreign ministers to chart a cautious course for the West's next move.

Kennedy and Macmillan will meet in Bermuda Dec. 20 and 21. They are expected to draft a directive that will send the U.S. ambassador in Moscow, Llewellyn Thompson, to see Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko—and perhaps Premier Khrushchev himself—to explore prospects of a compromise on Berlin.

As foreign, finance and defense ministers of the 15-nation Atlantic alliance traveled home, a high French official unfolded the intriguing drama of the Allied duel over Berlin policy played out behind the sedate scenes of the three-day parley.

FRANCE OPPOSES
This is the story as the Frenchman gave it:

France opposed talks with the Russians on grounds that Khrushchev, who manufactured the Berlin crisis, would see it as weakness. Almost all the other Allies favored negotiations, fearing that the crisis in the divided city could become a flashpoint of possible nuclear war.

Foreign ministers of the four big Western powers directly concerned—the United States, Britain, France and West Germany—thrashed the matter out in two days of intensive talking Monday and Tuesday. The French found themselves isolated.

When the NATO Council began its meeting Wednesday the subject was discussed at length again, for most of the day. The same pattern emerged—France was odd man out. The ministers ordered their experts to try to reconcile the conflicting viewpoints.

They worked at the job nonstop

Widowed Mother Of 15 Gets $120,700

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Some $120,700 in damages have been awarded to a Washington County widow with 15 children by a U.S. District Court jury.

The jury returned the verdict Tuesday in favor of Mrs. Harriet Keenan of Washington, Pa. She had sought $323,000 damages from the J. W. Brown Equipment Rental Co. of Pittsburgh for the death of her husband, Lloyd, July 17, 1957.

The suit claimed a faulty crane owned by the Brown company caused Keenan to plunge five stories to his death at a building construction site in Potter Twp., Beaver County.

for 13 hours, producing draft after draft. Finally agreement was arrived at on a brief passage fitted into a general communiqué of the NATO conference, which totalled about 1,900 words.

The whole communiqué, with its 14 points, was placed before the ministers Friday.

The Berlin formula, neatly divided into two parts, said: "The council heard statements on Berlin by the foreign ministers of the countries most directly concerned, and was informed of the intention to resume diplomatic contacts with the Soviet Union, in accordance with the aims which the West is pursuing for the maintenance of world peace and in the hope that these contacts might serve to determine whether a basis for negotiation could be found."

"Their colleagues approved the resumption of diplomatic contacts and expressed the hope that a negotiated settlement could be achieved. After full discussion of the situation, the council agreed that the alliance must continue on its resolute course, combining strength and firmness of purpose with a readiness to seek solutions by peaceful means."

the seating had set a precedent that would be difficult to overturn.

Britain voted with the United States on the two-thirds question, but swung with Russia on the proposal to seat Red China. France stayed with the United States throughout the balloting.

Finland, Denmark and Iceland, three Scandinavian countries that have relations with Peking, voted to seat the Communists. Fifteen nations from Asia and Africa also voted for Red China.

Voting with the United States were most of the countries of Western Europe. So did all the Latin-American nations except Cuba.

Two Are Killed In Head-on Crash

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An auto crashed head-on against a streetcar early today in suburban Wilkensburg, killing both occupants of the car.

Pronounced dead on the scene were Elmer C. Stamates Jr., 29, of Pittsburgh, the driver, and Sandra Kastler, 23, of nearby Turtle Creek. They had been returning from a party.

Some of the occupants of the streetcar were shaken up, but none was injured seriously. The bodies were pinned in the wreckage of the car for awhile. Emergency crews eventually got them out.

James Pressler, the operator of the streetcar, said Stamates' car was on the wrong side of the street.

BUS DRIVER IN FATAL CRASH IS ARRESTED

GREELEY, Colo. (AP)—Funerals were scheduled today for 6 of the 20 children killed Thursday when their school bus was smashed by a passenger train at a grade crossing.

Mayor Gordon Rissler said he would proclaim Sunday a day of mourning, calling on all residents to attend church and pray for the victims and their families.

The driver of the bus, Duane Harms, 23, was charged Friday with involuntary manslaughter. Released under $1,000 bond posted by a school district official, Harms told newsmen: "I feel terrible. I don't know how to say how terrible."

HIT BY TRAIN
His bus, bound for Greeley with 37 pupils from a rural area southeast of here, was hit by a Union Pacific train traveling 79 miles per hour.

Harms was knocked unconscious but escaped with minor injuries. He said in a statement he was unsure whether he had stopped the bus at the railroad crossing. A 16-year-old student injured in the wreck told reporters that Harms not only stopped the vehicle, but opened the door as required by state law.

Thirteen youngsters still are hospitalized for treatment of injuries received in the accident.

OLD CRYSTAL IS DISPLAYED FOR FIRST LADY

By FRANCES LEWINE

SAN JUAN Puerto Rico (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy sampled the acclaim of modern-day Puerto Rico, then got a taste of the island's splendorous historic past—and appeared to like the fare.

The First Lady waved gently to a cheering throng of flag-waving Puerto Ricans who turned out 200,000-strong Friday to welcome her and President Kennedy.

As an admirer of antiques, she was shown crystal table centerpieces that came to this island as a gift of Queen Isabella of Spain in the 16th century.

on the three-day schedule of a fast-moving presidential weekend trip to Latin America.

21-GUN SALUTE
Kennedy noted on their arrival that the last time he and his wife were in Puerto Rico was "one of the last carefree interludes we have had." At that time he was a senator.

Graced with an armada of ceremonial flowers, Mrs. Kennedy stood by as her husband was accorded a 21-gun salute. Friendly crowds jostled her as they tried to get in close but she did not seem to mind.

VOTE IN TEXAS
WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP)—Voters of Texas' 13th Congressional District ballot today for a successor to Democratic Rep. Frank Ikard, who resigned to take an oil institute post.

The field contains one Republican and four Democrats. If none gets more than the combined vote of all others, which seems likely, runoff will be necessary. Gov. Price Daniel will set the runoff date between Jan. 22 and Feb. 6.

Order Negroes To Discontinue Demonstrations

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—The Congress of Racial Equality was under federal and state court orders today to stop demonstrations against racial discrimination here after police used tear gas to quell 1,500 Negroes.

Three CORE leaders were among 73 Negroes jailed in a series of protests that culminated Friday afternoon when police needed tear gas at least five times to stop disturbances in the downtown business area.

TAKE 3 STEPS

Officials took three steps to head off further demonstrations: 1. U.S. District Court Judge Gordon West issued a restraining order against CORE that forbade any activity that might tend to breach the peace. He set a show cause hearing for Jan. 4.

2. Three state judges, C. A. Barrett, Fred Blanche and Fred LeBlanc, signed a similar restraining order that named a number of CORE leaders in Baton Rouge and New Orleans. They set a show cause hearing for Dec. 26.

3. The dean of Southern University, Dr. E. C. Harrison, said Christmas holidays would begin today instead of Dec. 19.

The tear gas attacks followed demonstrations in front of the East Baton Rouge Courthouse, where the 23 arrested Thursday were jailed; at the nearby old state Capitol, on the edge of the business district, and in downtown streets filled with Christmas shoppers.

SEARCH FOR 30,000 MEN

The 83rd Infantry Division, the famed Thunderbolt Division of World War II, for the third straight year, is conducting an extensive search for some 30,000 of their former members. That was the number of men on their roster at the end of the war. These men are scattered all over the nation. Many are from Pennsylvania.

Every year the 83rd holds a reunion. Next year the 18th annual convocation will be held in Atlantic City, August 16, 17 and 18, at the Hotel Ambassador.

All former members of the old 83rd are urged to notify the national secretary, Harry Lockwood, 43 Oakland Ave., Jersey City 6, N. J.

Economist Urges Women To Buy Food Family Will Eat; No Bargains If Thrown Away

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

Buy the foods your family will eat. No matter how low the price, no food is a bargain if you must throw it away.

But it isn't only foods that the family doesn't like that go into the garbage can. Too often families throw out food because they bought too much. The large economy size package doesn't save money if it ends up as waste.

One way to reduce the amount of waste is to buy perishable foods, such as fresh fruits and vegetables and meats, only in amounts you can use within a few days.

Another way to cut down on waste is to plan meals carefully. If you wish, count on having planned-overs instead of leftovers. Small jars containing bits of food, that may not be used even after a day in the refrigerator, lead to waste. But when enough food is cooked at one time to make a second meal, that's wise use of food and time.

When you don't find the right size package of food to suit your needs, ask for it. Only by making your wishes known will the store management be able to give you what you want.

FOOD WASTE DISPOSERS
Today's food waste disposers feature many improvements. They can be used with almost any sink and adequate sewage system, and they work faster than the models of previous years. Manufacturers are using plastic shells, fiberglass insulation, or rubber cushioning to help overcome their noisy operation.

Features are built in to prevent food jamming. But it's still not wise to force large amounts of waste into the disposer at one time or try to grind large bones and big chunks of raw dough. Cut up corn husks, celery stalks and melon and citrus fruit rinds before putting them into the disposer. Small pieces place less strain upon the motor.

The continuous-feed disposer grinds waste that is fed into it after the water and switch are turned on. Another type, known as the batch-feed disposer holds about two quarters of waste and won't start grinding until the cover is in place and the water and switch are turned on. This safety precaution may make the batch-feed disposer a more satisfactory unit to install in houses where there are young children.

To improve physical fitness may well be a New Year's resolution of many persons. Proper nutrition is a key, to physical fitness. Proper nutrition doesn't come from tonics, vitamin pills, or other so-called miraculous substances. It's achieved by eating a variety of foods and giving special attention to an adequate intake of nutrients, such as vitamins A and C, calcium and iron, that may be low in many diets.

Each member of the family needs at least four servings of fruits and vegetables every day. Citrus fruit or another vitamin C-rich fruit or vegetable is needed every day, and a dark green or deep yellow vegetable is needed every other day to supply vitamin A.

Adults and children need calcium for building and repairing bones and teeth. Milk and cheese are the best sources of calcium, and milk supplies much of the body's riboflavin needs. Adults need two cups and children need three to four cups of milk each day or its calcium equivalent in cheese or ice cream.

Liver is the best source of iron and should be eaten once a week. Other meats, leafy vegetables and breads and cereals add to the body's iron supply.

100 Years Ago This Week...in THE CIVIL WAR

(Events exactly 100 years ago this week that led to the Civil War—told in the language and style of today.)

ANGRY RETORT

Gen. Sherman Denies Charge He's 'Insane'

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 13—The Cincinnati "Commercial" today published an angry denial from Brig. Gen. William Tecumseh Sherman of charges printed two days ago that Sherman had lost his mind.

"Every material paragraph of the dispatch is false," declared the outraged Union officer, a former Ohio banker.

The denunciation of the story was brought to Murat Halstead, "Commercial" editor, by Sherman's brother-in-law, Philemon Ewing.

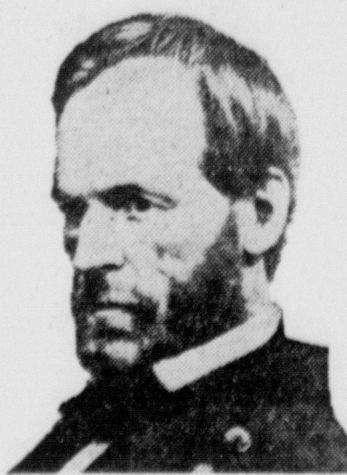

It had been penned by the controversial Sherman while he was home on leave from service in Missouri, where he is an aide to Maj. Gen. Henry W. Halleck, commander of Union forces in the west.

EDITOR Halstead said the dispatch had been written by a New York reporter who served with Sherman in the field, along with a Commercial reporter who was locked up by Sherman in Louisville after a hassle over security.

"The painful intelligence reaches us, in such form that we are not at liberty to disclose it, that Gen. W. T. Sherman, late commander of the Department of Cumberland, is insane," the story began.

Publication of the bombshell capped a running battle between Sherman and the press that has echoed all through the ranks and into the War Department in Washington.

AT ITS height three weeks ago, Secretary of War Simon Cameron went to Louisville to confer with the stormy field commander.

GEN. SHERMAN

Sherman promptly objected to the presence of newsmen in Cameron's party.

He explained his early arguments with reporters were based on his belief that the newsmen were filing stories with information helpful to the enemy.

The war secretary was said to have attempted unsuccessfully to persuade Sherman that the newsmen were within their rights in filing whatever they saw fit.

AFTER Cameron's visit, Gen. Halleck granted Sherman a 20-day leave to return to his home in Lancaster, Ohio, for a rest.

But sources close to Halleck reported that the day after Sherman left camp, Halleck advised his superiors that his embittered aide was in poor "physical and mental" condition.

Sherman read the "Commercial" dispatch after his arrival in Lancaster, and wrote his demand for retraction in his home there.

"Trent Affair" Pot Boils

LONDON, England, Dec. 16—Indignation by public and press continues to mount here in the face of refusal by the U.S. government to act in the controversial "Trent Affair."

Her Majesty's government has demanded the prompt release of two envoys of the Confederate states who were removed from the British war sloop, Trent, by a U.S. warship.

THE U.S.S. San Jacinto stopped the "Trent" in South Atlantic water some six weeks ago. Over violent objections by British officers, crewmen removed the envoys, James Murray Mason and John Slidell.

Charging a violation of British rights, Queen Victoria's government demanded release of the "abducted" diplomats, who since have been imprisoned in Fort Warren, Boston. There has been no reply as yet. The British are getting quite impatient.

Caracas Tense While Waiting For President

By MORRIS ROSENBERG

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—

Swarming with security agents, this capital was tense and excited today as thousands massed to greet President Kennedy on his good-will weekend visit to Latin America in a show of faith in his Alliance for Progress program.

The President, accompanied by his wife, was to fly from San Juan, Puerto Rico, after getting an enthusiastic reception on the first stop of his Latin-American tour.

Thousands of heavily armed steel-helmeted troops guarded the routes expected to be traveled by the President during his 24-hour Venezuelan stopover. The Venezuelan air force banned all aircraft from flying over the Caracas area without special permission during Kennedy's stay.

TERROR FLARE-UP

Kennedy's good-will trip, aimed at boosting his $20 billion Alliance for Progress program for Latin America, brought a flare-up in the terrorism campaign led by Communists and pro-Castroites opposed to the government of President Romulo Betancourt and to its friendship with the United States.

But the vast majority of the capital's 1,330,000 residents appeared set on honoring the visitors from the United States.

Local dignitaries were on hand well in advance of the arrival of Kennedy's big Air Force jet plane at Maiquetia Airport. Cabinet members and other high officials reserved places to the right of the runway arrival area while U.S. Embassy officials were stationed on the left.

BURN U.S. FLAG

Midnight passed with an absence of violent terrorist acts in the capital for the first time in many evenings. Three youngsters burned an American flag in the only incident.

But across the country in the big oil city of Maracaibo police broke up an attempt by extremists to dynamite installations there. Maracaibo had been stripped of many of its security forces who were sent to Caracas to bolster garrisons in the capital.

Informed sources said the government had called out 400 uniformed police, 1,500 plainclothesmen and several thousand soldiers to guard Caracas until Kennedy departs early Sunday for Bogota, Colombia, the second and last Latin-American nation he will visit before returning to Washington.

Monique Van Vooren Says Beauty Is Sometimes Hindrance To Acting Career

"For an actress, it's really better to be born homely."

That's the opinion of Monique Van Vooren, the blonde Belgian bombshell. Monique is mad because American producers take one look at her striking figure and classic features and assume she can't act.

"Some people think you must be ugly to be a good actress," she

For this reason, Monique has been snubbing her pretty nose at roles designed merely to capitalize on her sex appeal. She's been coming into the office and upset a table, Martin Gabel said, "If you were a real spy, you'd have been caught ten minutes ago."

Monique has been trying to prove herself as an actress since coming here from Belgium ten years ago. She was a skating champ and a beauty queen in her native land.

"Every producer I met in America wanted to hire me," said Monique. "But always for the wrong reasons. They told me, 'Don't worry about acting. Leave with her hair askew and little or no make-up.

"I realized the unimportance of physical beauty when I had my accident," Monique recalled. "I was nearly blinded," Monique continued.

"The doctors told me I might never see again. I'd sit in the dark and think about my friends. I forgot their faces sometimes, but never their personalities.

"What you have inside is so much more important than the cover that's put on it."

Monique Van Vooren is about as pretty a spy you'd want to meet in the true espionage story "Trick or Treason" on the "Du Pont Show of the Week" Sunday, December 17, on NBC-TV.

waiting for meatier parts and thinks she may have one in "Trick or Treason," a spy thriller to be seen on Sunday on NBC's "Du Pont Show of the Week."

A TRUE STORY

"It's a true story," explained Monique. "How the Allies fooled the Germans into thinking the Second Front would be aimed at Holland rather than France. I'm a spy — a Mata Hari type. Which side am I on? No one knows until the end of the show."

"Trick or Treason" teams Monique with such veteran performers as Martin Gabel and Tom Helmore.

"Best of all, the script gives me something to do," continued Monique. "I'm not just window dressing. There's a wonderful scene where I attempt to steal secret papers from the safe in the London OSS office. It's very nervewracking."

STUMBLING AND FELL

"During rehearsal, I stumbled that to the plain girls. Just stand there and look beautiful."

Within a few years, Monique established herself as a top attraction in night clubs. Her throaty voice and obvious allure kept the customers coming in.

"WANTED TO ACT"

"But I still wanted to act," she said. "So I went to Europe."

Monique appeared in one European movie with Erich Von Stroheim. Then she journeyed to Italy to work for the renowned director, Vittorio Di Sica. The result was an award-winner "Tomorrow Is Too Late."

"Di Sica won't use an actress just because she's got blonde hair and straight teeth," said Monique. "If you're without talent, he won't even look at you."

Since returning to the United States, Monique has played down the seductive, low-necked gowns which were her trade-mark at one time. In "Trick or Treason," she willingly appears in some scenes Monique's eyesight returned after several awful months. With this recovery came a new outlook.

"I wanted to learn more about life," she said. "I studied philosophy and languages. I speak six — English, Italian, French, German, Spanish and Flemish. I can also read Greek and Latin."

"LIKE A FREAK"

"When a woman is born beautiful, and concentrates everything on her beauty, she becomes — well — like a freak. There are actresses in Hollywood who are big stars only because they have magnificent bodies.

"But what will happen when they get older? They'll be empty shells. I won't let it happen to me."

Producers are finally waking up to the fact that Monique Van Vooren is as talented as she is beautiful. Following "Trick or Treason" and a stint as Queen of New York's Beaux Arts Ball, she's slated for two more video

MONIQUE WILL BE ON "SHOW OF THE WEEK"

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Monique Van Vooren, a blonde Belgian bombshell who has done very nicely as a supperclub chanteuse and foil for some top comedians, is currently engaged in fighting that old demon, type-casting.

This is a complicated process, involving a determined effort to eliminate her French—or Belgian—accent and to find parts remote from characters which could also be played by, for example, the Gabor girls, Jayne Mansfield and, once upon a time, Fifi D'Orsay.

"If you're identified with France," complained Miss Van Vooren "and have a pretty face, you are always in comedy, always the foil for a comedian. If you can lose the French accent, you can do almost anything."

NOT INCONSPICUOUS

At the moment, Miss Van Vooren's accent still strongly suggests the land of her nativity and with her pale hair and svelte figure she is far from inconspicuous. But on Sunday night, in NBC's "Show of the Week" series, she will play a straight dramatic, non-comedy, nonsinging role. She will in fact, play a spy of the Mata Hari type, in glasses and a dark wig, in a drama called "Trick or Treason."

Monique spent four bitter, hungry years as a child in Brussels when the Germans occupied Belgium during World War II, but knew little of the glamorous side of war beloved by TV script writers.

"We suffered a lot, and those of us who were growing up had no youth as you see it in this country now," she reflected. "Even to this day I find I cannot throw away a stale piece of bread."

TONIGHT SHOW

Recommended weekend viewing: Sunday: "20th Century," CBS, 6-6:30—film biography on the late Wendell L. Willkie; "Meet the Press," NBC, 6-6:30 — George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, guest; Ed Sullivan Show, CBS, 8-9 —Louis Armstrong and Duke Ellington perform together for the first time.

dramas. A Broadway play may follow.

"If I'm lucky, people will forget what I look like," concluded Monique. "They will think, instead of what I can do. Then I'll be happy."

When a woman is as consummately beautiful as Monique Van Vooren, it's difficult to forget her looks entirely. But if that's what you want, Monique, we'll try.

Huntley - Brinkley Tense Before Show

Don't let the relaxed attitudes of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley fool you when you see and hear them reporting world events on the NBC-TV "Huntley-Brinkley Report" Monday through Friday nights. Their easy, conversational but probing style is a cover.

The pressure of deadlines and the necessity of saying exactly the right thing before tremendous but unseen audiences keep them far from being casual. As one interviewer recently described Brinkley, "He appears to be a prime specimen of cool—but seething school of reporting."

Brinkley, a tall, thin North Carolinian of 41, moves deliberately, talks deliberately and even smokes deliberately. At the same time, it wouldn't surprise those who know him if he suddenly hurled an ashtray across the room due to inner tenseness.

TV Briefs

Ted Raph, musical director of ABC-TV's "Yours For a Song," was the arranger for the orchestras of Paul Whiteman, Vincent Lopez, Leo Reisman, Enrique Madriguera and Rubinoff.

June Vincent claims a record with six appearances on the "Perry Mason" show—more than any other guest actress in the series. Says Miss Vincent, "I've been a murder victim once, a murderer once and looked guilty the rest of the time."

William Gwinn, who plays the judge on ABC-TV's "Day in Court," taught prisoners English grammar behind the gray walls of San Quentin in California long before he put aside his educator's credentials for the TV camera.

Sonny Fox, star of "On Your Mark," served a two-year tour of duty as correspondent with the Voice of America, garnering interviews with King Faisal of Iraq, Madam Pundit of India and Gen. MacArthur.

Popular vocalist Jayne P. Morgan will sing an original song by actor James Komack, "Just for Me," in an episode of "Hennessey." Komack also wrote the teleplay, which will be directed by Jackie Cooper, star and producer of the Monday night series on the CBS-TV network (10-10:30 p.m., EST).

Fabian, recording star, has been signed by producer Hy Averback for a straight acting role in "Peace Corps," an episode of "Mrs. G. Goes to College" which will be seen in January on the CBS-TV network (Wednesdays, 9:30-10 p.m., EST).

When several drab wooden phone booths in a New York ferry terminal were replaced with new models of aluminum and glass, phone company revenue at the site doubled.

ROCK AND STONE MENU

Fred and Wilma Flintstone and Betty and Barney Rubble, two of Hollywood's foremost husband-wife acting teams, were guests for dinner of Red and Violet de Aggregate at Romanoff's. De Aggregate, a leading director, being a gourmet without peer, ordered the dinner from Mike, himself, in advance. The menu consisted of: Cherry stones, coral bisque, rock cod with brick cheese sauce, roasted plymouth rock under mica with lime saude, and rocky road ice cream. A fine time was enjoyed by all.

"GUNSMOKE" IS SOLD OUT FOR THREE MILLION

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — You've got to say one thing for the "Gunsmoke" gang: They stay in character.

Every viewer of the Saturday night Western knows this. I realized it anew when I called on the talented troupe to hear about their windfall.

It had been reported that Dennis Weaver, Amanda Blake and Milburn Stone had sold out their interests in "Gunsmoke" for a million dollars apiece. James Arness had previously made his own deal with CBS, also for a fabulous amount.

CONFIRMED TRANSACTION

The trio confirmed the transaction when I visited their Dodge City diggings. They reacted in character: Chester was cheerful, Doc was grumpy and Kitty was flighty.

Kitty was in the makeup department, awaiting her call to the Long Branch saloon. I asked her if the million-dollar figure was true.

"I guess so," she said airily. "At least that's what my business manager tells me. It doesn't make much difference to my way of life. He just keeps sending me my allowance, and I just keep spending it."

Doc finished a scene in the Dodge City jail and vigorously confirmed the news.

GOOD OFFER

"I didn't want to sell, but CBS made me such a good offer that I couldn't pass it up," he grumbled. "I had a good contract. Well, I had to. I had seen myself on TV every night in old movies, and I wasn't getting a dime for it."

As for Chester, he was bright and cheery, partly because of his financial gain, partly because of his new adventure. He is finishing out his last year on the show. His co-stars have four years to go. Doc took a dim view of his sidekick's departure.

"A show like this one depends on all its elements for success," he said dourly. "The loss of Chester might well prove fatal."

Stage And TV Star Plan TV Show In '62

Broadway's fairest "lady" and CBS-TV's brightest comedienne will team for an hour-long television special in Carnegie Hall early in the spring, 1962 season. Julie Andrews and Carol Burnett, who have already made joint appearances on "The Garry Moore Show," will get a chance to pool their formidable talents in a show now being put together by Bob Banner Associates.

If the Carnegie Hall schedule permits, a regular show without cameras will be staged before a paying audience one week prior to the telecast date to "break in" the Andrews-Burnett performance.

Ed McMahon, announcer on "Who Do You Trust?" studied speech and drama under New York drama critic Walter Kerr at Catholic University in Washington, D. C.

When Jack Bailey completed his study of dramatic arts at Drake University in Des Moines, he was "discovered" for the stage by actor Ralph Bellamy.
